“ Kevin and I met around 1988 on the Hartwell Railway. Although separated by distance, we remained friends since that time. He was a wealth of railroad knowledge and always fun to be around. We will miss seeing him, especially at the Atlanta train shows. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Kevin was a dear friend of mine. He and I met through amateur radio, learned we had a shared interest in anime, and that led to our friendship blossoming. He and I spent many hours talking about anime and life in general, and I was even able to introduce my convention crew to him at the annual anime con he worked for many years. In early 2017, he and I climbed Stone Mountain together on an unusually warm January day: this was very happy memory. He will be missed by everyone who knew him. He was a truly warm soul! Eternal rest grant unto him, O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him. May he rest in peace.

“ Kevin has been like a big brother for me ever since we worked together on the Stone Mountain Scenic R.R back 25 years ago! Kevin always brought so much life to the place, and he always knew how to engage and talk with whoever he met with! I am truly blessed to have known such a wonderful person!

“ Kevin and I go back to our childhood in Snellville when he lived just a few doors down from us on Williams Place. If there were one phrase to describe Kevin, it would be "renaissance man". He was one of those few people I knew that worked in an industry he loved (railroading). If he weren't a railroader, he would have made a great professional musician (trumpet and piano). One of my fondest memories of Kevin was when we both had mopeds and would ride between Snellville and Lithonia. IMHO, Kevin was more well loved than he may have ever known. You can see it through the plethora of tributes posted on his Facebook page. My condolences and prayers are with his family. May His holy spirit comfort all who loved him and may Kevin rest in His eternal peace.
