“ Kristin, I have know you when you was a small child, and oOH my goodness you were something else. LOL. I remember asking you were you going to have anymore kids you said Lord know that you were afraid they would be as mean as she was. That was so funny. WE will miss your laughter and your smiles. “ The Johnston's lived behind us growing up. She was like another lil sis. Always funny always thoughtful even throughout the years. She truly brought light to everyone; she never knew a stranger. I love her love for life and now she's rockin in heaven. I pray for her family and especially her son because their life will be hard to live without her in it, until they see her again. Love you Kristin.

“ I first met Kristin when our sons was about a yr old and we became dear friends that went thru a lot of good times and was there for each other during a lot of bad times. This was Aug 2016 Def Leppard concert, my sons first Concert. So very Thankful that Kristin was there to share that with us.
