“ Kris and I always had the best conversations; she was deep and thoughtful, warm and loving. Talking with her, anyone could easily feel her love for Terry and Rhiannon—Terry, her lifelong soulmate, and Rhiannon, her adventurous, best-friend daughter that she so admired. I’ll always remember the way Kris scrunched her nose when she found something funny and would laugh. I’ll always remember, too, how she wouldn’t hesitate to talk real with you if something more serious was on her mind. A true healer and nurturer, Kris always looked out for everyone before tending to herself. My beautiful, brave aunt. I love you and miss you. Until we meet again.

“ Kris and Terry. Kris was Terry, Terry was Kris. Two names that represented one true love. Terry and Rhiannon, we are so sorry for your loss. Take solace in knowing that she is now waiting for you in God's house. Kris would always greet us with a smile and a hug. She was a special soul and she will surely be missed.

“ Terry and Rhiannon, we would like to convey our deepest condolences to you. Kris was a sweet, loving, and beautiful women. We loved her and will miss her.

I remember Kris and her 2 sisters spending time at our house when baby Jon was born. We let them eat a picnic lunch on a little table that summer day. I caught a picture of little Kimmy snatching food off Kris & Debbie's plate and those two giving Kimmy a surprised look. It was so cute. Those children got along so well, and did all their lives, they were very close. Kris was a sweet heart, a joy to be around. She will be greatly missed by many loved ones.
