“ I remember T as a very hard worker with high hopes. I admired him and his mother for their adherence to the Christian faith and devotion to the Lord. I remember the trip to the beach in Florida's panhandle when he drove the boat and splashed Peter and I with water when we hit a wave. It was fun. I know this for a surety, he will find peace and rest and his faith will be renewed when he sees his sister and the Lord in Heaven. May the Lord bless all of his family and Grandma too.

“ Kunthy,

Even though I have not met you personally, I already know how amazing of a man you were because you raised such a blessing in this world. I am a friend of Chrissna, and through him I know that you were such a loving man of God when you were here. Chrissna is the most kindhearted and hardworking individual that anybody would be lucky to have met. Stay strong Khiev Family, I send you my condolences and I'm praying for your family.
