“ Kurt and I haven't spoken in over a year. The vast number of people moved by his passing testifies to his ability to make the people he loved a priority in his life. I'll try to follow his example and spend more time staying in contact with more of the wonderful people who have been in my life.

We had a service for Kurt here in Germany and people from four continents and three different faiths came together to say some prayers together.

I am also grateful to have become aware of the family history film Kurt made with his mom. Today I had the opportunity to see it and made me cry.

I am grateful that I got to know Kurt as well as I did. I wish I had seen more of him.

“ So unbelievable. I was floored when I went to pick up the wife meds after getting her out of St. Mary's. He was so kind, and he helped me so much with ideas of taking care of my very ill wife. We will miss his smile, and we always picked on each other. Pharmacists comes and goes. Not him. He will always be remembered and missed. And I thought of as a friend, instead of a pharmacist. Will never be replaced. Our thoughts and prayers for the family. Many people are morning with you, your not alone.###imported-begin###Ricky & Claudette Decker###imported-end###

“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of Kurt. My thoughts and prayers go out to his family. I played baseball with Kurt and his brother Andy for several years. We had a lot of fun together especially in high school baseball. Kurt was always a person that would make everyone laugh and will always be remembered as a great guy.

“ Kurt was in my homeroom his senior year in high school. I taught his brothers, Andy and Chris, but I did have the honor of teaching Kurt. However, he was my pharmacist for many years--always so kind and pleasant to me and my family. A brilliant man whose life was extinguished too early. He will be missed by many people. Love you Kurt.##imported-begin##Loretta Altman Stone##imported-end##

“ I want to extend my sympathies to the Hansen family. I only knew Mr. Hansen through shopping at the Kroger pharmacy but he was always one of the pharmacists that would answer my questions, no matter how silly they were. He was always friendly and smiling. I will miss seeing him when I am there.##imported-begin##Deborah Wiggins##imported-end##
