“ I am sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Please accept my condolences at this painful time. Losing a loved one is distressing and as comfort is needed from family and friends, we have assurance from the Bible that "death will be swallowed up forever" at Isaiah 25:8. It is my hope your family will find strength to endure during the days ahead.

“ I knew Larry for 40 years. We worked together on and off since 1977 when we both worked for Columbus Photo Service in Columbus Georgia. Larry was “The Man” when it came to processing film and he taught me a lot in those early days. No matter the position or company, Larry always had a smile, a quick wit and was a delight to be around.

When Larry and I worked together in Birmingham, he ran the night shift and it was so comforting to know he was there. I never had to worry about getting a phone call in the middle of the night because I knew Larry had everything under control. I haven’t worked with Larry for more than ten years now, but I know he carried the same professionalism and positive attitude on to his other endeavors. I didn’t know a lot about Larry’s life at home, but I have the pleasure of working with his son Larry Jr. now and it is evident through him that Larry and Deb did a great job as parents as well.

Larry left us far too soon, but I’m sure he is in a better place today. My bet is that Saint Peter fired up the barbeque pit as soon as he saw Larry coming.

Rest easy friend.

“ I have had the pleasure of working with Larry Fowler at the Atlanta location of Genova Diagnostics for a number of years. Larry was a wonderful coworker and a pleasure to work with. He brought a sense of joy and celebration to work with him and I have the warmest memories of him celebrating birthdays and holidays with his team. I am honored to have known him and offer my deepest condolences to his family during this difficult time. Andrea Harris
