“ Dearest Joann and family,
My heart is heavy today and but believe in everlasting life with our Savior.
Some thoughts for your comfort.
" Do not weep for me for I am not here"
"And I do not sleep"
"I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
Wake upon the morning's hush
I am the swift uplifting rush
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.....
Think of me sweetly and do not cry
For I did not die
I am with you, my love.
Jan and Edwin Oliver and family.

“ *I have known Larry since the 4th grade, Larry, Edwin, Jerry, Doodle, Gene, and I grew up in walking distance you each others house in an area known as "Valley Brook". We all ran around together through elementary school, high school and Larry and I joined the Navy together..We went through Boot Camp together and served our country. After the service we both came home and remained friends for life...Larry was such a great friend, always there to help, he loved life, he was a jack-of-all trades, could fix most anything, and loved fast cars..I didn't know he had a wood working talent until a few years back he made and gave me one of his hand-made Yo-Yo's...It still sits in my curio cabinet..I, and I'm sure the other guys could tell stories from the past that made our friendships for each other last forever.....Some stories shouldn't be told, just kidding, we never got in any serious trouble.
Larry, my friend, I miss you, but, we will meet again.....My heart goes out to JoAnn, Scott, Natalie and all you family....God Bless them...*

See you later buddy,

“ Memories of Larry swirl in my head. He was a leader among the young cousins at our extended family gatherings. At a young age he began to resemble his father who also was a beloved gentleman. He and his mom had to form a survival team. Together they learned to cope. In her latter years, Larry was there for his mom. I admire him for his many talents. He could build and fix things.---- repair photographic equipment and computers-use a lathe , saw, planner. He made me a couple of prized yo-yo's. And he had a license to buy and sell houses. Larry and Joann were a devoted team she led the way in caring for Larry even when she was ill herself. Larry Miller , A true Christian gentleman. I shall miss him. He was not perfect. He drove too fast. Robert Stone
