“ I just heard the news! I had the privilege of working with him until he retired! He was best friend and buddy ever! He was special to soo many of his co-workers and we had the chance to see him a few months ago! This is just heart breaking but knowing I will see him again one day makes my heart smile! Fly with the angels buddy!!!

“ *To: The Larry Morrow
It is with great grief that we heard the news about Larry. It is with fond and loving memories of our days together in Forest Park and all the good times we shared, that will always remain with us about Larry his family and all of our friends from the Optimist Club days. Our prayers our sympathy and our hearts go out you.*
