“ Susan my deepest sympathy goes out to you and your children. I was in your place two years ago when God saw my husband was too sick to stay here and mercifully took him home to Heaven. The road ahead will be rocky at times, but we have a loving God who will supply your every need and can comfort beyond our understanding. May sweet memories live in your heart each day and you can take comfort in knowing that Larry is not suffering any longer. I rejoice that God knows when to take us to be with Him and that our blessed Savior will always be with the ones left behind.##imported-begin##Joyce Hainey##imported-end##
