“ My sincere sympathy in the lose of such a wonderful women. Your mother attended Pleasant Grove Baptist Church with me. She always had a beautiful smile on her face and always spoke anytime we met out somewhere. She carried a beautiful GRACE that you should be so proud of. Heaven today is a much better place!##imported-begin##Thomasa Moon##imported-end##

“ Sue personified the word lady. What a beautiful spirit she was and what a true lady with a kind word for everyone. She reached out when she knew you were in need without needing or asking for anything in return. How hard to know that beautiful light is no more but how proud you must be to know all the people that light provided warmth for. Each family member or person she met will be better because they knew her. God will welcome her with open arms and now heaven will be a little brighter. We are sad for your loss.##imported-begin##Nancy Minor##imported-end##
