“ To Ms.Sandy and the entire Shell clan: I have known Estel for 50 years. He was my bus driver and fellow church member in Snellville, as well seeing him at Thrift Town. I was always see him with a smiling face. He teased me every chance he could about me falling down trying to get on and off his bus. (I don't remember this ever happening!) I saw him last on December 28, at my Daddy's funeral. Even in a mask, I could tell he was smiling because he had that special twinkle in his eye! How blessed I am to have known this special man. My prayers are with you all as you adjust to life without Etsel. Pamela Teague Schlieman Paine
