“ To Paul, Frank, and rest of their brothers and sisters and family,

Lee was a loving mother with a deep faith. Her life was centered around her family! Paul, I am so sorry for your loss but you will be able to share all of the wonderful memories with Sabine and rest of your family.

“ Dear Uncle Frank and cousins,
We're so sorry for the passing of Aunt Lee, she was a sweet and genuinely kind person, always taking the time to ask how you were doing even when I was young. Lynne shared with us, that Aunt Lee was always a lady from her head to her toes. My sister-in-law Sue, said when she was new to the family, Aunt Lee made her feel welcome, that was Aunt Lee, always thinking of others.

I could always see the love between Aunt Lee and Uncle Frank and the love she had for her children.

We are all better people for having Aunt Lee in our lives!

My thoughts, prayers and love go out to each of you.

*Love,
Marian*
