

Leroy Wason

March 29, 1940 - December 13, 2024

WASON – Leroy Wason, 84 of Loganville, GA, passed away peacefully in the loving arms of his family on Friday, December 13, 2024. A native of Barbados, Leroy worked for Ford McEneaney, a major car dealership in Barbados before moving to Boston in the 60's. Once in Boston, Leroy started a career at Stop & Shop where he worked for many years before working as a technician for Ricoh Copier Company where he stayed until his retirement. Leroy cherished the love of his life “Ellie” with whom he had two children, Richard and Brian. Together Leroy and Ellie worked hard to save and create a legacy for their family purchasing homes in Boston, Florida and Barbados. He is fondly remembered as a hard-working family man with an infectious smile. Leroy was a loyal friend with an awesome personality, always happy to give rides to people who needed one, even missing out on hitting the local numbers because he had given a friend a ride home. Before moving to Georgia he enjoyed spending time with his closest friends Frank Grant, Jeffrey Yarde and others. Leroy loved to sing in his church choir, take care of his lawn and watch cricket, tennis, NASCAR and horse racing. He always made sure his family was well taken care of and every time he got paid he'd say “Ellie, the money is upstairs”. He also loved sitting with his family and having dinner together but wouldn't eat until he had both a fork and knife in front of him.

Leroy is survived by his loving wife of 60 years, Elenia Wason of Loganville, GA; sons and daughters-in-law, Richard and Jocelyn Wason of Loganville, GA, Brian and Charice Wason of North Providence, RI; grandchildren, Justin, Jacob and Joshua Wason; sister, Sheila Wason.

“ We Thank God for Blessing Us to be a Part of Leroy’s life. The way Leroy came into our lives was through my daughter Charice who dated his son Brian and they were married later in June of 2023. Leroy was a humble, modest, and down to earth man who loved being around family and friends.

Leroy’s trademark was his smile. A smile that was so bright it made the sun jealous! A smile that was warm, sincere, magnetizing, and inviting. It made you want to get to know the man behind those pearly white teeth.

From the day my daughter got married to his son I believe God planted a seed through them that sprouted and bloomed into one of the most beautiful relationships of love and respect between his family and mine. I credit Jesus Christ for being the Gardener and allowing our relationship to bloom in such fertile and good soil.

We thank God for all of the fun and precious moments He blessed us to share with Leroy such as family get togethers, cookouts, birthday parties, just stopping by to say hi etc... We thank God for the conversations we were Blessed to have with Leroy, breaking bread together with Leroy, laughing with Leroy, joking with Leroy etc... As the old adage goes: “the good things in life are free” and that is so true because you don’t have to always pay and go on vacation or a concert to have fun, you can actually have just as much fun or even more fun spending and enjoying time with the people you love who God has placed into your lives like Leroy and his family.

Leroy it was truly a blessing having you in our lives and we Thank God for Making It All Possible! I believe in my heart you are now Rejoicing and are in Total Amazement and Fascination being in the Presence and Glory of God Our Father and Jesus Christ Our Lord and Saviour! Hey Leroy look at it this way you have all of Eternity to take it all in.

Leroy you will always be in our hearts until that day when we meet again. Then we’ll be back in each others lives for Eternity.

Hallelujah!

Love Always,

Gregory Sr., Lisa and Family
