“ My family and I want to thank every single person for your thoughts and prayers; we have and still are feeling the love you have poured out to us, and that love has definitely helped us get through this trying time. I know my dad is at Home with the Father, and I know my family and the rest of the family and friends who know Jesus will see my dad again in Heaven. Thank you all for being there and for loving my dad as much as my family did.
