“ My heart is breaking at losing such a precious aunt, but it swells with happiness knowing that Letha is now resting in Jesus' presence. I can only imagine the reunion in Heaven when the angels carried her home. I'll miss you, Letha, more than words can say. Loved our long phone conversations about everything under the sun--the laughs, the jokes, the teasing. You were such a joy to be around. I loved you! When my time comes, please meet me at those gates with Mama, Daddy, Pa Hall, Ma Hall, and all those loved ones who have gone before. RIP, Letha. You fought a valiant fight, and you will be missed.
