“ Dear Family - I was trying to remember the date of Roger's death - I know it's around now - when I came across your mother's obituary. Wow - she was a beautiful woman! I lost my mom to Alzheimer's 2 years ago - I know what that road's like. They are in a better place, for sure. I actually was in town last week and drove around Valvedere. It's amazing how it's changed. My house is yellow, has been added onto but still looks basically the same. The front yard looks much smaller (I don't know how that happened.) Anyway - I think of Roger often, and the goofy things he would get himself into. He was a kind and sweet person - I wish he hadn't burned so brightly so fast.##imported-begin##Carol Scott Wazlavek##imported-end##

“ Bob and Susan,

We were so sorry to hear about your mom. I'm so glad you all were able to be with her that day. Bob, you were the best son to her. I'm sure it is comforting to know she is out of pain and in a better place. We are thinking of you and the family.

Love, Helen and H.##imported-begin##Helen and H. E. Crow##imported-end##
