“ *Aunt Lana, is the name I remembered with a beautiful face and her picture above depicts her inner outer beauty. At the last stages of my pregnancy, 33 years ago, she suggested a very strong name for my soon to be daughter that now carries that name. I have good memories of her and husband, Uncle Joe, and my cousins Mary, Jo and Joe when I came to visit in experiencing a warm family environment. May your life enrich you with continued good. “ She was a very devout Catholic. I remember with great affection seeing her after I got ordained and how happy she was for me. I'll pray my rosary for her in the coming days. She will be missed...
