“ Miss Lillie Mae, Years ago I was your group leader at Scientific Atlanta. You were always one of the sweetest people. Lost touch with people over the years, wish I had stayed in touch. I see in this picture you have lighter hair I remember you with black hair. To your family so sorry for your loss, my prayers are with you.

“ *Dear Aunt Lillie Mae: I will always remember your unique laugh, which you so easily shared with us, and your quick smile. You were one of the best cooks I ever knew. You will be missed here on earth. But I know there is a big welcome home for you in heaven. I mourn your passing but celebrate the 90 years you were here with us.
