“ She was a loving and attentive mom. I remember sitting on the sofa listening to her read Heidi and the adventures of Tom Sawyer to us as young children. She stayed up late to make sure our clothes were ironed and ready for school every day then got up early to make breakfast when we were in elementary school. I also remember her chasing Chris around the yard trying to get him on the school bus. She and daddy were always holding hands and never parted ways without a kiss and a I love you. They taught us what a loving marriage looked like. She was loved so much and will be missed but she is reunited with Daddy now and I know she is happy again.
