So hard to write all you feel when you lose a special sister. She was my best friend and second mom. We shared so many good times and some hard times. I am truly blessed to have had her in my life. I know she's with our Savior, Jesus Christ, where she is reunited with our family who went before. I know she has a perfect body and mind, and I look forward to the day when I see her again. I know she would want all who read this to know and love the Lord. She was my role model, my friend and much more. Cherish your loved ones. We are not promised tomorrow.

Linda and her family were my "across the road" neighbors for many years in Grayson. Their acts of kindness will never be forgotten. She was the best friend I could ever have had and her sweet smile will be missed but know she is in the arms of the Savior---- We will meet again.
