“ I am so sorry for your loss. The loss of a loved one is so heartbreaking. Just think if Adam and Eve would not have sinned, we would not be suffering the loss of our loved ones. Gods word the gives us hope. Isaiah 33:24 and 25:8, tell us that The God of love will soon bring an end to sickness and death, Jesus Christ while here on earth spoke about the resurrection hope in John 5:28,29. That means that we will have the opportunity to see our loved ones again, I look forward to that time. What will conditions be like when the above scriptual blessings are fulfilled? Please read Psalms 37:10,11,29, and 72:7,8. for further comfort and assured hope, please contact the local kingdom hall of Jehovah's Witnesses.##imported-begin##IH##imported-end##

“ Linda Clark Archer was my Mama's best friend since she was 5 years-old. Since I was a child, I heard stories of their antics together and those tales have been a constant part of my existence. My mother, Linda Joyce McHugh Cochran loved dearly the companion with whom she shared her first name. Her passing has left a deep and lasting void in our lives. One small comfort is that she shall be laid to rest in the cemetery at Walnut Grove Baptist Church which also bears the remains of Mama's Daddy and Mother, Emory L. and Ruby Hallie McHugh. Miss Linda, you are loved, remembered and missed.##imported-begin##Sonja Cochran Smith##imported-end##
