“ Link & Peggy,

For Parents, our greatest fear and deepest pain is losing a child. Nothing compares. Your family, faith and your memories will help to start the healing process. Time will do the rest. My family offers your family our deepest condolences for your loss of Link Jr. May God rest his soul and watch over you and the rest of your family in this most difficult time.##imported-begin##Roger Keehfus##imported-end##

“ Peg and Link,
We were so saddened to hear about Link. It doesn't seem possible. It has been many years since we saw any of you but most of our memories of him are as a young boy. Ed Markel let us know about it today and we were of course shocked. No words are sufficient at a time like this but please know that our thoughts and prayers will be with you and the rest of the family at time. You will never completely lose him as you have a mind full of wonderful memories and they will stay with you forever.
Our love to all of you. Roger & Joyce##imported-begin##Roger and Joyce Povolock##imported-end##

“ Dear Link & Mrs. Keehfus:

You both have Joyce's and my deepest sympathy's and our most heartfelt remorse at the untimely loss of your find son. I had the real privilege to first get to know Link Jr. and then, in time, to come to admire and rely on both his friendship and his deep knowledge. He was such a fine young man. I mourn with you; not to the degree of a mother and father but as a friend.##imported-begin##Douglas & Joyce Vance##imported-end##
