“ Ted and family.....Pete and I didn't find out about this until late Sunday night. I've been trying to figure out the "right" things to say to help bring comfort...but, there are no "right things" to say at a time like this. We are so saddened to hear this news and only wish that we had found out in time to come to the services for sweet Lisa. We loved her (and you!) and would have liked to honor her life in that way. Please know that we are thinking of you and praying for you during all of this. If there is anything we can do to help, please don't hesitate to call. Our hearts are hurting so badly for you and all you are going through. Lisa will be missed by everyone who knew her fun and sweet personality and were influenced by her love for our Lord.

“ Lisa - Great everlasting memory - after a long day of training the trainer with Brad, I remember Ted meeting us at the Wild Wings in Las Vegas. We tried every flavor of wing, didn't know any of the trivia questions, and shared stories that rolled out the biggest belly laughs that made our eyes water. I'm going to miss that beautiful head of hair and having to talk to someone who hated dieting as much as me. We became good friends and I know we both love that we did. Heaven is lucky.

“ Lisa, you will be missed by so many my sweet friend. The laughs we've shared will forever be in my memory. I am fortunate to have known such a wonderful woman. Thank you for teaching me what true love looks like. You and "Teddy" had a love like no other I have seen.

Ted, my prayer for you and the family is to know this is a temporary separation. May God give you strength and help you through this time. I wish you all some sense of peace.

“ *Ted and I both worked together at Lilburn PD when he and Lisa Lisa were dating,
On their wedding day, following a beautiful ceremony joining the two WONDERFUL, LOVING PEOPLE, we had to have a prank, so someone arranged for a GA State Patrol officer to stop the newlywed couple as they pulled out onto Hwy. 78, and pretend to arrest poor Ted Bailey. I don't think Lisa Lisa (not a typo, that is what we called her back then) was too happy with the pranksters. I don't think I have ever met a happier or more loving couple.*
