“ I am so sorry for your loss. It is very painful to lose a loved one especially so young. God invites you to find comfort in his word that promises the resurrection of those that have fallen asleep in death and the time when death will be no more (John 11:24,25 Isaiah 25:8). As you ponder on that wonderful hope for the future, may your fond memories of lisa bring you joy during this very difficult time.

“ Tonight I'm playing on my original Game Boy in honour of my dear cousin Lisa. Lisa gave me a Game Boy some 25 yrs ago, before they had even been launched in the UK. We loved playing on it all that time ago, and it's nice to remember those times playing one again this evening. Thanks for being so kind and generous cousin. Love Dominic xx

“ Lisa was 8 months older than me, so at the end of my senior year of high school, she came to Michigan to visit me and ended up becoming a "chaperone" on my senior trip to Canada. She was the best "chaperone" my friends and I could have asked for! She always brought a carefree, fly-by-the-seat-of-your-pants approach to life. She sat on top of a flower barrel in a meditation pose for a photo op....she kept us awake all night with her funny stories from back home, which were always fun to listen to because of her sweet southern-drawl....and she even signed as my legal guardian so I could get my ears pierced, because I was still under age! Several months later, Lisa and her friend, Tara, showed up on our door step (yes, in Michigan) unexpectedly. Their reason? ROAD TRIP! I have always wanted to repay the unexpected surprise by coming down to GA....Lisa....I'm sorry I didn't get down here sooner! I love you and miss you!

“ Lisa,
You have a special place in our hearts. We love you and will miss you until we meet again. We thank you for the gift of Andrew, a wonderful boy. He carries on something special of you. You had a heart-breaking decision to make, but you had the courage to give a big piece of your heart away for Andrew. We will always love you for the bravest decision of your life. Andrew wants you to know that "Doggins" and "Puppins are with him every night, and he remembers you and thinks of you always.

Love always, Colin, Hilary and Andrew

“ Great memories of Lisa on my trip to the States. It was a surreal time being there during sept 11. But like all good Americans her spirit wasnt broken, she made it a great holiday for me. Her wit, charm & laughter will never leave me.

Our beloved Lisa, you will live long in my heart, till we meet again.
Rest in peace x

“ Lisa My Baby girl I will always remember our talks about Grandma and Grandpa and our everyday life experiences we shared the good and Bad. We had just made plans to spend the Holidays together This year. We were looking forward to going to Stone Mountain and The Peachtree plaza. I will be forever grateful that we became real close But very Unfortunate That this was going to be the first time we Met A cousin whom was so close to me But now so far away. Love you R.I.P Cousin Lisa Love always, Jodi Ann Gradisher.

“ Lisa, I haven't seen you in more than a decade; but I thought of you frequently and wished you well. I'm so sorry to hear that you're gone. I'm sorrier still to know that you were right around the corner and I never looked you up. I will always have such wonderful memories of all of us in high school and after. Rest in peace--with a Camaro.

“ We are so sad to hear this news. We will always remember the happy days that Lisa spent at our house when the kids were all young, as they played in the pool and climbed up in the tree house and how they all raced their big wheels around the cul-de-sac. We treasure those memories. She was the best play-mate, and baby-sitter for our girls. Bob and Alice, we send love and prayers for you and her boys. We are so very sorry.
