“ My twin and I recently discovered that Lisa was our 1st cousin. I'm so blessed to have had the opportunity to meet her and see firsthand what a caring and fun person she was. While our meeting was brief, I'm so glad it happened. ❤️

“ Where do I even begin when it comes to sweet Lisa. She was a second mom to me growing up, so the memories I have, I feel, are endless. When Krystle and I were younger, one of my favorite memories will always be playing in the neighborhood in the snow and coming back into the house FREEZING! Lisa would tell us to go stick our feet in the tub with hot water to “thaw out”. It would burn so bad but within seconds, it worked. Then we would go to the kitchen for hot chocolate before she would cheer us on while we would put on full concerts for her in the living room. Lisa was our biggest supporters in everything we did. She drove us to modeling agencies and would offer us up to sing at church. I was always so shy but Lisa brought anyone out of their shell within minutes of being around her. I will forever be thankful to have been able to share such a special woman with one of my very best friends. The world will never be as bright without her in it, but I know she is at peace and living it up like she always has.

“ I met Lisa and shortly after that I needed to have lung surgery. Lisa drove to Florida and the night before my surgery, she did a cleansing over me. Both of my doctors couldn't believe it wasn't cancer. I believe and have faith that she had something to do with it! I will never forget that gesture barely knowing me. RIP Lisa 💕🙏

“ Lisa and Dwight were hired several years ago, at the FISH Thrift Stores in Monroe and Loganville to renovate both locations. They worked tirelessly in painting, moving shelving, adding dressing rooms, laying carpet, etc. making the Thrift Stores what they look like today. Beyond getting paid, both gave this non-profit organization their love and dedication. Many memories in working with them. May she Rest In Peace. Bob Gaubert

“ Some of my favorite memories of Lisa hold a special place in my heart. My absolute favorite memory is the night Krystle, Chaz and I took a drive out to a local "spot". Driving down this dirt road we spot a gator it was only 3ft. Well we will just say it was Chaz's idea to bring it back to their home... Around 10 Chaz and Krystle get a phone call of screaming and hollaring who put a damn gator in the house! I remeber Krystle looking at Chaz and Chaz saying I put it in a Rubbermaid bin in my closet I didn't know it would make its way to mom and dad's room! 😂 Every time we spoke about that night Lisa's face would light up and her contagious laugh would make Any ones worse day around. I see so much of her in Krystle and Chaz! I am so blessed I met Krystle and Chaz in high school and created such unforgettable memories with them and their mother Lisa. ❤️ A smile as bright as the sun, a laugh as contagious as love. A heart so big to welcome any stranger with open arms. ❤️
