“ Toni, John, Paul, Veronica, Vivian, Matthew and Families, Your loss is deeply felt. The paths of life are filled with twists and turns that are not always those we would like to travel. God in His infinite wisdom, has bigger plans than we could ever imagine, and His Love is greater than man can comprehend. Lisa is one of His children. He chose her family. You were blessed to have her for the 38 years she was with you. Her smile and laughter was like sunshine on a cloudy day. She was full of spirited fun throughout her life, and yet very efficient and methodical in her business life. Lisa was a joy to her family and friends. God also blessed her with a beautiful child of her very own. As time goes on Lisa will continue to be remembered in life's garden of memories. The blooms will brighten with each passing year and her legacy will thrive through the continuing love of all who knew her. Her mission was completed and God chose to call her back into His Heavenly Realm. It is hard to let go of a loved one, but God loved her before you knew her, and He needed her home again. You will be reunited when the time is right. Until then, look to God, each other, and friends, for comfort and reassurance. God knows your pain and He will not let you face these days alone. Remember, Lisa is on a new adventure. She is not gone--she is just away. The next photo album you see will be awesome! God Bless each of you and may God's arms comfort you during this difficult period in your lives.##imported-begin##Sandi Dotherow##imported-end##

“ Our hearts go out to you and the family. I don't know how I am even able to write this, so I can only imagine the weight of your heart at this very hurtful part of life. I love you all and may Lisa's love always guide you through the "tough times" until the tears are tears sweet memories. We love!

“ Where does one start? Lisa was a good friend of mine not to mention an inspiration. She shined everywhere she went. She was a very special person in my life. I just recently found out about her untimely demise and I'm deeply saddened by it. I got the chance to meet and work with a brilliant co-worker and a true friend in every sense of the word. I will miss her so much (Tears). I will always have fond memories of us at lunches (what we did best) and our talks about life, friends and family. I wish I would have gotten the chance to speak with her again and pay my respects at her funeral but God has his plans and we have ours and I need not to question them but respect them. If I could compare her life to music, I would say that she finished her song in one take. That's how perfect she was. I will miss you forever Lisa. My prayers go out to her beautiful daughter, family & friends. God Bless.##imported-begin##Marina Forbes##imported-end##

“ Childhood is what you spend the rest of your life trying to overcome. That's what momma always says. She says that beginnings are scary, endings are usually sad, but it's the middle that counts the most. Try to remember that when you find yourself at a new beginning. Just give hope a chance to float up. And it will...

This is a quote from Lisa's favorite movie Hope Floats. My hope does float today. It floats with my sister and her new beginning. I love you always my dear sis.

Love always,

Your Little Brother##imported-begin##Matthew Faubert##imported-end##

“ Mom, everyone loved you despite all your violent threats.

You should've seen the turn out at your viewing. You'd think you were Marilyn Monroe.

“ I met Lisa during our time going through breast cancer treatment. Lisa and I became such good friends because she had such a warm, caring spirit and shared her kindness with others in the chemo room. Lisa used to sit with me on days I had treatment even though she was not going to have treatment because she was too sick. She is such an inspiration to those fighting cancer. Lisa put up a tough fight, but unfortunately lost it to a terrible disease. I will always remember Lisa's kindness and friendship and am sad I will no longer have her company when I go through treatment. I do, however, believe that Lisa is smiling down on all of us and she is free from pain and breast cancer. With that, we can all rejoice! I will miss Lisa dearly.##imported-begin##Wendy Alexander##imported-end##

“ We are so profoundly sorry for your loss. Lisa certainly fought for her health. We both hope that you will, in the coming days ahead, be comforted by your love for her. She lives on in her daughter.

She is in God's hands, and we will be praying for you and your family. God be with you all.##imported-begin##Bobby and Danya Reeves##imported-end##
