“ I am so sorry for your loss. May reading these scriptures be of encouragement to you. Isaiah 33:24, and 25:8. King David was inspired by Jehovah God to write about the wonderful conditions that we will be surrounded by in Psalms 37:10,11,29, and 72:7,8. I hope that these acriptures will give the family of Lisa McCormick Ibouhouten some comfort and assured hope.##imported-begin##FH##imported-end##

“ I wish to express my deepest condolences to your family for the loss of Lisa.

I was fortunate to have met Lisa at the Home Depot store in Lawrenceville a few years ago. She was my customer and had sought out assistance for an item. I do not specifically recall the item, however, it was something too large for her vehicle. I offered to deliver it to her home, free of charge. Lisa graciously accepted my offer.

I recall that she was a gentle and rather quiet woman, but, someone who possessed a strong spirit. She was neatly dressed, however, she did appear frail. (My initial contact was sometime in late 2006 or early 2007). During my visit, we exchanged contact information. Unfortunately, I transferred to a different store due to a promotion and lost contact with her.

When I saw the obituary notice in the Gwinnett newspaper, I was saddened. It is a rare individual who can touch one's soul; Lisa seemed to reach me in this way.

I am certain Lisa has reached a new and, more profound, place in eternal life. Please be comforted that she is now completely safe.

Warmest regards,

Gary Feilmeier

“ Life will cause tears, give us reasons to smile, and bring memories. Smiles will fade, the tears will dry, but the memories will remain. When you feel the cold uncaring hands of loneliness and sadness touching you hang on to those memories and the warm hands of love and caring will pull you close.

At night as you look upon the stars think of them not as suns millions of miles away, but as openings into Heaven from which the love of your lost loved ones pours and shines down upon you and your family.

Mine and Amy's thoughts, prayers, and love goes out to you my friends. May you find shelter in the hands of God, peace and understanding in his presence, and feel his love as he carries you through this tough time.##imported-begin##Jason WHitaker##imported-end##
