“ My family has passed the home of Lew and Hazel probably a million times over the past 20 years as we drove back and forth to Dacula with our children. We always looked for them to be sitting out front in their chairs and give them a wave. Many years ago my preschool daughter and I pulled over to see what Muscadine's were (they had a free sign) and they took to her and showed her a pecan nut cracker and fed them to her until she could eat no more. We saw them many times when they were volunteers and read at the elementary school. Llew took pride in his beautiful garden at his home and we enjoyed the beauty of it too. Sometimes you don't know how much a person has been a blessing to others and both Llew and Hazel were a blessing in our community.
