Mama I miss you so much there will be a big void in my life for a long time now that you are gone. I tried to do everything I could to make your life easier and more comfortable while you were at the nursing home. I would to it again for another 13 years if you needed it. I love you Ann

“ Dear Grandma Lois,

I don't remember ever calling you anything but Grandma Lois because in my heart and mind, from the day we first met in 1987, 28 years ago, you always treated me like I was part of your family and always had that beautiful smile for me when we would see each other. I am deeply saddened to know that you are no longer physically here amongst us to brighten our days and our lives with your kindness and your acceptance and your love and that beautiful smile.

While my heart weeps in losing you, my mind is fills with such happy moments of all the times we spent together the conversations we shared, the holidays we celebrated, and the memories we made together, you as my Grandma Lois.

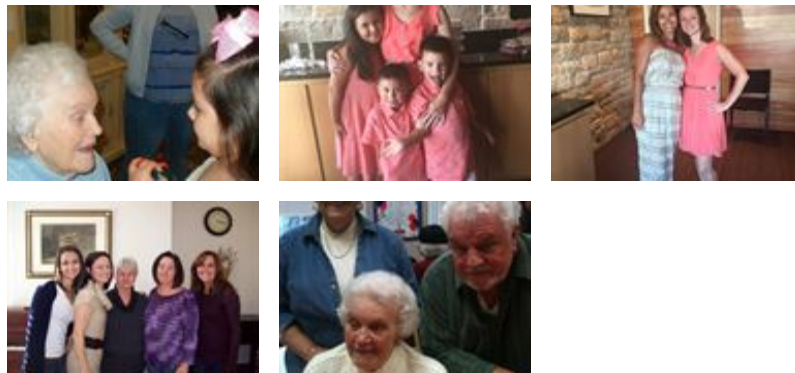

With love,

Edward Triebell
