“ Dear Sis,

I think of you first thing in the morning, and close my eyes to thoughts of you at night. It is not lost to me that you have been in the presence of Jesus this Holy Week. He died so we might all have eternal life. It eases my grief to know you are in His hands. You are free of all pain; Pain that you have endured for so very long. I have thoughts of all the dogs and cats who have come to greet you after your journey Home. I remember your thoughts about how these sweet animals would never let you down but give unconditional love. It was a passion for you to help animals in need of rescue. I also see the Love you put into your sweet daughter Emily. I know she will continue to make you very proud. I pray that you will let me know your peace. I will be waiting for a sign of your presence and know you will be there to greet me when I leave this Earth. You are missed.

The Lord said, "Come to Me, all you who labor and who are burdened and I will give you rest." - Matthew 11:28

Love You, Brenda
