“ In Loving Memory of My Aunt Lorraine or as I use to say when I was little “Aunt Rain”.

I grew up and still live across the road from Aunt Lorraine and growing up I spent almost as much time at her house playing as I did at home. She always made me feel as though her house was my home too. Having Aunt Lorraine a part of my life was a special gift and being in her presence growing up was one of God’s many blessings to me.

Aunt Lorraine gave love without condition and inspired without reward and the little heart gifts she gave me are some of my life’s richest treasures.

I will always remember her cheerful smile, working in the garden (wearing her bonnet), putting up vegetables, wonderful country cooking, sewing and the beautiful clothes she made, her thoughtfulness and her kindness and most of all her love and I am grateful God blessed me with such a special Aunt and all the wonderful memories.

Marie and Jimmy may God hold you close, bless and comfort you during this difficult time. I love you very much.##imported-begin##Juanita Wallis Dewberry##imported-end##
