“ My visits with Lucille after she was unable to attend church were very special. We talked about our earlier days when we were together at church and church functions. All good memories of the Malcom family. My mother was a Malcom before marriage so we sometimes claimed kin. She was a very special lady and my memories of her will last the rest of my life. Love and sympathy to the family and friends.

Aunt Lucy was a very special lady. The Jones Edwards reunion were joyous events to visit with the clan. She joins her family in heaven.
