“ I enjoyed growing up next door to Lynda. She was always there for me with her smile, strong faith and courage. When my 4 year old son was diagnosed with Type I Insulin Dependent Diabetes, Lynda was there with her support and memories. Lynda was a wonderful neighbor, friend and lady. She will be sorely missed by those priviledged to know and love her.##imported-begin##Gail Collins Sinno##imported-end##

“ Lewis, John & James:

What an amazing lady Lynda was. Her attitude and disposition throughout all of her health-related issues was phenomenal--never complaining, always smiling. When this dreaded diagnosis was made, she placed her faith in the Lord and was determined to win the battle. Lynda won her battle, but not in the way we wanted. She's healed now and whole once again. Heaven is rejoicing with her arrival.

She was such an inspiration to all of us who knew and loved her. We will miss her dearly.

Lynda, "I love you 'cuz". You will never be forgotten.##imported-begin##Ronnie & Carolyn Buice##imported-end##
