“ Hello Sweet Family! We were so sorry to hear of this sad news. We are praying for all of you and hoping you know how very much we love you. There are so many happy memories of Lynn and your family, but my favorite one is of Lynn helping with a Palm Sunday Children's Choir Program. Taylor and all of our sweet little children marched into the sanctuary carrying palm branches. Taylor and Meredith were walking together (they loved each other so much). I'm grateful we all had each other as family to worship God together at First Baptist Grayson. It was a blessed time. I'm sure Lynn is rejoicing with Jesus right now. We love you and are keeping you in our hearts and prayers!

“ Lynn is one of the most genuine people I know. Her sincerity, kindness, concern for others and passion define what I know of her. It is a pleasure to know her. I speak of her in the present tense because she is alive. She is with the Lord and I know He is pleased. Lynn, I will see you again and we will hug and rejoice as never before. Gary and Taylor, please be comforted with the thought of a future reunion.

Much love,
