“ *We were saddened by the news of Mack's death. When our family moved from Alaska, he was the first neighbor to welcome us to the neighborhood. Before our furniture arrived, he invited us to use his washer and dryer and even brought over some home made ice-cream for us to enjoy. He always had a smile and a wave for us when we would drive past him as he worked in his impeccable yard. What a kind and loving soul he was. Every now and again I look over at his yard longingly, because I miss his presence. We miss his presence. Thank you for you gift of kindness Mack. Rest in Peace and Fly High Among the Angels. “ Every time we were in town, we were invited to Mack and Linda’s home to visit with family and eat Mack’s fabulous Bar-B-Q. First thing we would notice as we pulled up to the house was the immaculate grass that looked like a golf course green. Mack was a gentleman’s gentleman!!!

“ During our daily dog walking through the subdivision, it was always a joy to encounter our friend Mack in his yard. A true gentle soul who always took time to greet Duchess and Lady with generous scratches, pats and kind talk. He always seemed to have a funny quip and quick smile as we walked on. We will miss him, as will his canine friends. He fought a hard fight with tenacity and grace.

“ As a child and young man Our cousin Mack Callaway was a kind and gentle spirit always there for his sister Carolyn and his mother Virginia. We all have fond memories of times together in Mystic Georgia at our Grandma’s house and picking up pecans at our Aunt and Uncles house. We send our love and prayers to Linda, Taylor and Kelsey. He adored you all and was a very proud Dad. With love, Beth and Larry Lawrence
