“ I was blessed to know Marc when I was a student at Northeast Mississippi Community College in the 80s. What an awesome guy!!! He was a teacher, mentor and wonderful friend who taught me so much about journalism and life in general. I have so many fond memories of him, including our lengthy and sometimes wild conversations about anything and everything while processing film and printing pictures in the dark room. My heart breaks for him and his family. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ I taught Marc in the first grade in Myrtle, MS. He was a very smart precious little boy. I saw him throughout the years and he was always happy to see me and had a hug for me. His parents and sister were friends of ours. A very special caring family. I loved Marc
