“ Our lives were truly blessed when we met Margaret while living on Fripp. We had so much fun laughing and sharing in each others lives! Leaving her was one of the hardest things we had to do when we moved away but still we stayed in contact. We loved her with all our hearts and look forward to the day we meet again in heaven!##imported-begin##Mike & Debby Platt##imported-end##

“ We were both very close to Mrs Margaret. I considered her my best friend! We talked every day on the phone about all our problems , health TV programs, friends that we knew that was sick, about our church. We are trully going to miss her so much. Johnny was at the home that morning & called 911 for Bea. I know that she is with Jesus & not worrying & suffering anymore. God Bless you all!##imported-begin##Johnny & Ann Lee##imported-end##

“ Margaret was a true Southern lady in every sense of the word. I have wonderful memories of her from years ago in association with her friendship with my grandmother of St. Helena Island, Daisy Russ. My life was enriched by knowing her.##imported-begin##Norma (Sis) Cooler##imported-end##

“ I met Ms. Margaret several years ago on the beach at Fripp Island. We bonded immediately and have been good friends from day one. I visited Margaret as often as I could get to Fripp and felt as if she was a part of my family. I will miss her very much and I know Ms. Bea will miss her too. She was a very special lady. May you rest in peace Ms. Margaret.##imported-begin##Wanda Sandels##imported-end##
