“ *There are many fun stories from my youth I remember about Aunt Margaret.
One was when her new Cadillac got a ding she had it fixed by having trim applied to cover the dent.
The funny part was she only had the trim applied to the side of the car that had the dent.
I still remember hearing her say "nobody can see both sides of the car at once. Who will know.
Her spirit lives in us all. :-)
Love Always..###imported-begin##Michael Barrows###imported-end##*

“ To my dear friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss.....it doesn't matter your age, losing a parent and grandparent is never easy. I like the fact that you are choosing to celebrate the life rather than mourn the death; I believe it's what our loved ones would want us to do. I'm sorry that I cannot be there this evening, but many thoughts and prayers are with you.##imported-begin##Darrell Ritchie##imported-end##

“ Gary, Libby, Sarah & Brian – Marion, Mike, Jen & Stephanie – Mom, Nathan & Trevor (and other family & friends):
So wishing I could be there with all of you. You are in my thoughts today, as always but more so. I wish there was something I could say or do to ease some of the sorrow you are feeling but I know that's not possible. I have so many wonderful memories of times spent as family with grandma or just times she and I did things when I was growing up. I know I will miss her and she will be missed dearly by each of you. Please know you are all in my thoughts and I hope you'll reflect on all the happy times to help you get through the sorrow you feel. Love to all Nicki, Jack, Andin & Lucas!##imported-begin##Nicki Chanecka##imported-end##
