I am saddened to hear of the loss of Margaret. My thoughts and prayers go out to her loving family.
When I think of Margaret Langley, I think of a pillar of strength and determination. She was a strong, elegant, compassionate, lady who stood by her faith, morals and values.
I worked with Margaret in the Probate Court back in the 1990's and appreciated her friendship. Margaret took pride in her work, and she had a desire to be consistent, accurate and thorough. I had a deep respect for her goodness. Margaret sure loved her family and friends. Many times, we lunched together at the Mexican Restaurant, and I enjoyed hearing the sweet stories about Kim, Brent and her loving husband, Cecil. I still have the woven, wooden basket that Cecil made for me, and I have used it as a recipe box for 35 years. I now live in St. Augustine and haven't seen Margaret in a long time, but she will always be in my heart. Rhonda and Wayne Huttoe
