“ I helped Melba clean Ms. Margaret's house and I always enjoyed being around her. She reminded me of my own Grandma that I lost when I was 8 years old.

She was a sweet and feisty woman, and she will be missed.

“ No matter how long you live, it is never long enough. Gods word the Bible explains why. Ecclesiastes 3:11 tell us that God has put eternity into our hearts' He put in us the desire to live forever. If Adam and Eve would not have sinned, they along with there off spring would have had the prospect of living forever. There is a for sure hope. Jesus promise d the resurection hope in John 5:21,28,29. Yes Jesus Christ promised that millions now dead will live again and have the prospect of remaining on this earth forever under peaceful paradasaic conditions. (Matthew 5:5, and Psalms 37:10, 11,and 29) What a wonderful hope to look forward to.
