“ I was so sorry to hear of Aunt Margarets passing ,but at the same time I am glad she went so peacefully as she well deserved. now she is in Gods care...she just may be organizing the angels in prayer groups. I am so glad that myself,my husband and our son got to go down to vist her and Uncle Maurice...my son was so taken by how much she looked like my mother whom he calls Nanna,that we nick named Aunt Margeret Johnnys southern fried Nanna. One of my favorite memories of her is how she called me the day before we were to head south and in that lovely slow southern drawl said 'Laura I know you live in New York and I know you grew up in the North so I have decided that we will comprimise..when you come to visit I will learn to listen quicker if you will learn to talk slower...' I just loved that..I am truly blessed to have had her in my life..my condolences to all and my love to Uncle Maurice..

Love,
