“ My memories of Monroe are fading with the years, but they were awakened with all the photos of Miss Marian. She looked the same to me throughout the beautiful album of Pat and Marian. My parents, Jack and Mary Neal are of their generation, and Barry, Mom was a fellow "beauty operator" with you and your aunt.

I love and miss you all,

Cleve Whitley

“ Marian was always one of my favorite people. My mother Betty Camp had her standing appointment every week with Barry and Marian. It was always such a hoot to go to the shop and find out what all was happening in Monroe. She will be greatly missed. She was a great and kind person.

“ Pam, Ever since I was a child, I have adored your parents. Your dad was always a perfect gentleman, and your mom could light up a room just by being in it! You know all of her wonderful qualities, and our entire community will miss her. Thinking of you! John and Julie Howard
