

Marian Spiceland

January 5, 1922 - June 7, 2015

Marian Spiceland stepped peacefully into the next life on Sunday, June 7, 2015, freed from the bonds that had held her mind and body these past few years. Her long and productive life of 93 years can now be celebrated in heaven and on earth. She is at peace now. Marian was born on January 5, 1922 in Blackville, S.C. Where she lived until the death of her father when she was four years of age. Her mother later remarried and the family moved to Miami, Florida, where Marian resided until her marriage and subsequent relocation to Decatur, Georgia with her husband. She was actively involved in the Columbia Drive Baptist Church in Decatur, Georgia for many years, where she served as a Sunday school teacher and assisted her husband in managing the Baptist Training Union for the youth of the church. She was a gentle soul who loved, and was loved by all who knew her. She was kind and generous to everyone and was a wonderful wife and mother. Her passion in life was gardening. She was known for the quality and variety of her precious roses and her yard and home were always filled with flowers of every description. Even in her declining years, she still loved to surround herself with roses and a wide assortment of other flowers. Marian was preceded in death by her beloved husband of 55 years, Jack L. Spiceland, Jr., parents Isaac Stille and Evelyn Stille-Ferguson, step father Arthur P. Ferguson, brothers Jack and Louis Stille, Bud, Robert and Jack Ferguson and sisters Carol Smith and Ruth Sinclair. She is survived by her remaining sister Jane Lucas. She also leaves behind her three children and their spouses, Lynn Kathryn

Rushing (Phil), Patricia Ann McDaniel (Gordon) and Jack L. Spiceland, III. (Cookie). In addition to five grandchildren, Chris Rushing (Elba), Jennifer Horton (Jamie), Courtney Youngblood (Chris), Mark Spiceland (Jessica) and Damon Spiceland. She is also survived by her eight great grandchildren, Riley, Reagan and Rivers Horton, Scott Hutchinson, Bowen and Louisa Spiceland, and Grace and Gerald Rushing, as well as numerous nieces and nephews and other relatives. The family will receive friends at 11:00 A.M. with a service to follow at 12 noon on Saturday June 13, 2015 at Tim Stewart Funeral Home 2246 Wisteria Drive Snellville, Georgia 30078 with interment and graveside services to follow immediately afterward at the Snellville Historical Cemetery. “ Pat's mom loved to go to garage sales--not that she needed anything, but she just liked to shop. She always came to family functions at Pat and Gordon's in Alpharetta--we were neighbors. She was a nice lady that I'm sure everyone will miss.
