“ Dear MaryAnne,

I still think of you often and wonder if you and Caitlin are together now. I'm sure you are and you were the first person she saw which made the crossing over so easy for her. I really appreciate the visit you gave me a few years ago and look forward to seeing you again some day. You helped me grow like no one has ever done before. I miss your drawings and your stories. I miss sitting on the church steps at night and talking, I miss you.

I will love you forever##imported-begin##Liz Summers##imported-end##

“ Happy Birthday Sis,

I love you.....I shed a tear for you today of memories past and the words I never got to say, and then a calm came over me and I knew it was you saying you'll be ok.... I will honor you every year on your birthday until we are together again...

“ Margie,

Your sister was beautiful.....it is very weird how you two resemble each other. God works in mysterious ways. What a nice tribute to her. It brought sadness to my heart to think of her two children she left behind and the struggles she went through the past several years. The picture of all of you when you were younger, that looks like Andrew - not Matt!!!! I can't believe how much Andrew looks like him! I've said it before several times. I totally see Miranda in you as a little girl as well!###imported-begin###Afriend###imported-end##

“ *To my sister Marianne...
And to her beautiful children that she left behind.....*

I found a lovely poem that I have found comfort in: God looked around His garden and found an empty place. He then looked down upon earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best. He saw the road was getting rough and the hills were hard to climb, so He closed your weary eyelids and whispered "Peace be thine". It broke our hearts to lose you but you didn't go alone, for part of us went with you the day God called you home.

*Until we meet again sis, I love you!!!!

“ Marianne.... I remember the day your mom and dad brought you home... It was a cold and snowy day in January. The family was so happy to add you to it's members. I was in eighth grade and had wanted a niece since i was flower girl at you mom and dad's wedding. I remember going to your home and taking you and Mark for long rides in your wagon... then when I took sewing in high school, making you and Mark clothes that we modeled in the school fashion show... I helped you learn to sew and you surpassed my skills quickly.. and I was not to bad myself... It has been so long since I talked to you, but you were thought of often.... I tried to contact you, but was unable to.... You will be missed so very much.... You are now with Grandma, I know how much you loved her... give her a hug for me... Know that you were loved and will ever be a part of our lives....

Love,

“ To my beloved aunt Marianne you will always be in our hearts forever. Your one more angel called to heaven and we think about you every minute of the day knowing that your in heaven with great grandma irene. its a very sad time for the family knowing that you are not with us maybe its because you were loved so much and we hope you know that because you were loved very very much and this is something that we will never forget my mom will look up to you forever but our tears will never stop for that we miss you so much and we will never stop loveing you because we will love you forever and hope you watch down on us every second of the day we love you i love you love always and forever more miranda kaye nelson i will see you when in heaven when its my turn to come###imported-begin##Miranda
