“ Grand is the reason why I love coffee - never thinking twice about giving 4-year-old me my own cup. She is the reason why I love to travel - never questioning the value of lessons learned from experiencing new places (even if it meant missing lessons taught in school). Grand is the reason why I know how to make biscuits - never denying me the chance to roll my own to tuck into the corner of the pan. She is the reason why I painted or coloured everything red - never failing to find a special place for any creation I gave her. Grand taught me to be strong, independent, confident and never give in when I'm fighting for something that matters to me, especially if it helps others too. She is one of the reasons I am who I am today, doing something that I love - for this, I will never be able to thank her enough. I love you, Grand.

“ Growing up Friday was always the best day of the week. Why? Because we always got to spend the night at Grands. She always had someone’s favorite meal waiting for us. I think the best part of the evening was after supper-she would wash dishes and I would dry. The conversations we had over dishes are something I will treasure forever. She is the wisest person I have ever known-and the best biscuit maker. Love you Grand. Give mom and the rest of the family a hug for me.

“ God has an extra angel in heaven. She will be greatly missed, but never forgotten. Our comfort is knowing that we will see her again and spend time with her in eternity. She was truly a very strong and special person. With love from her daughter, Kathy.

“ Marie (Grand) was a beautiful mother and grandmother. She will be greatly missed by so many. She had so much compassion and love her loved ones. I remember talking with Grand after my step father passes way. She gave me a big hug and said she wished she could take my pain away. I was not yet her granddaughter-in-law, but it didn't matter because I know she loved me anyways. I never got to experience all her wonderful meals I've heard so much about, but I do remember a few things. She would always bring THE BEST creamed corn and green beans over for family dinners! My husband, Kyle, has so many wonderful memories of his grandmother that he has shared with me over the years. It's almost too many to write down. We love and miss you very much! Sending prayers over our family and Rest In Peace Grand.
