“ Marie and I worked together for many years. She was never unpleasant towards me, she always genuinely counseled concerning work procedures and in between all of it she taught me something about life that is still with me today. Most people would have thought we were enemies but it was just the opposite. Today I just found out that she left her tent. She help prepare me for greater things. I am grateful to have known her. May our Father continue to bless to bless her as she continues her eternal journey. I say all these things...

“ To: The Family of Marie Gunter
I am so sorry for your loss. Sadie's passing has brought back so many memories of our high school days and a wonderful classmate. We were such a small senior class and were close in the early 60's, but we have been out of touch for many many years and I so enjoyed the memorial video. It was wonderful to see her precious family and the happiness she shared with all of you. I will never forget her and hope all your sweet memories become your family treasure to share for years to come. My deepest sympathy to all of you.

“ Oh Debbie, I am so sorry!! Even though we don't see each other anymore, since you left the bank at Kroger, I still consider you my best friend and my children have heard so many stories about our times growing up together since Kingergarten. I remember when we would go to your house after school and if i close my eyes I can still hear Ms. Marie when she would get home from work, as plain as day, "DEBBIE ANN, DEBBIE ANN, where are you?" And I will never forget our trip to Florida with just the three of us. She was a firecracker, beating cancer's behind and keeping on going. I was so sad when Mark showed me the paper. But now you have two guardian angels, Momma and Daddy, watching over you. I love you so much and we are praying for you and your family. Kimberley & Mark Smith and family
