

Marie V Scutt

June 20, 1924 - March 9, 2019

Marie Venante Scutt, 94, died Saturday, March 9th, at her Loganville home with her daughter at her side.

Venante was born June 11, 1924 in Beinet, Haiti to Carne Scutt and Archille Scutt.

School she attended was The Sister Ridore located in La Valley de Jacmel, Haiti. Her occupation was couturiere and designer and a homemaker to her 2 children. Venante had only one infinite love her entire life the father of her children. Venante raised her two children by herself without a father. She was a very good mother. She thought her two children all ways to survive and be successful in life. She was a very devoted religious women.

Upon completion of school she left Beinet, Haiti and relocated to Port au Prince, Haiti at 17 years of age and lived there till the age of 57. In 1979, she left Haiti at the age 57 and moved to New York. She was a very fun person and full of energy for life. She enjoyed dressing up and showing love.

Venante is survived by her children, Elizabeth Scutt and Adolphe Scutt; eight grandchildren; twelve great grandchildren; by her sisters Rosa Scutt and Atalante Scutt.

She developed hypertension throughout her older years, at the age of 87 her health started to deteriorate slowly. The last four years before her death a nurse's aid was needed with assistance in her care. She was very unhappy because she wasn't able to move around freely. She passed away peacefully at 94 years old. May she Rest In Peace in heaven above.
