“ I didn't know Ms Davis personally but I still wanted to give my regards to the family. In times of loss and sorrow, the scriptures can comfort our grieving hearts. Please note the words of First Corinthians 15:21,22-"For since death is through a man, resurrection of the dead is also through a man. For just as in Adam all are dying so also in the Christ all will be made alive..."##imported-begin##Jevon##imported-end##

“ Elaine and Mark,

I am so very sorry to not be with you today. I only found out about the services this afternoon. I am sure neither Angela or Susan knew about Aunt Margie passing. Your mom and Paige drove all the way up from Florida for our father., sadly arriving just after he had past. I will always remember that act of kindness that they would come so far. We knew she was on her way before he died, and it was her hope to arrive in time. We wrote her arrival on a large calendar we kept by his bed so he would know who had come, and what would happen each day. He knew very little in those last days and was not responsive. But when we pulled the calendar down and showed him we had circled her arrival in red for that Friday, one of his last responses was to nod his head. He understood. He always came to your mother when his faith needed "shoring up". He felt God always heard her prayers. I am heartbroken not to be there today. Your mom always made me feel so very special, and took time to listen to me as a little girl. When my little Stephanie was not expected to survive in those hours after birth, it was your mother my father turned to. Mark, you will always be my "handsome cousin", and Elaine, I wanted to grow up to be like you and Marie. All my love, Arleen##imported-begin##Arleen Shumate Peterson##imported-end##

“ Aunt Margie - You were always such an inspiration to me and Cindy. We thought you could do anything and everything...and I think you did! I'll always remember the sisters & brothers Christmas luncheon that you did every year. You always made Mama feel so special. My sympathies to cousins Elaine and Mark - I'm going to miss your Mother so much. Donna##imported-begin##Donna Smith Casey##imported-end##
