“ He was such a funny guy!! We all just laugh at all our special times as he coached and just hung out with our family. Mark it has been a long time, but feels like yesterday. You and your family hold such a special place in our hearts. You have such an amazing wife that was so god driven and such an inspiration to many. Your beautiful children are such amazing people and will hold all your special traits and demeanor. It truly breaks our hearts to hear this horrible news, but we are so glad you are with the lord and you are not hurting anymore. Love all of you!! RIP Mark!!!! We love you!❤️🍷

“ Mark, what a great guy! Full of laughter and never without a story to leave you scratching your head in wonder. He coached my youngest daughter Rebecca in little girls softball and was an encouraging to everyone he met no matter their age. I'll never forget all the nights in your driveway, the barn and at Dukes creek. Rest In Peace my friend.
