“ Dear Shawna and children,
There just are no words that will bring you much comfort right now. I am so sad that this has happened to your family. It is just devastating. I know and feel your pain in the loss of a husband and daddy. Please know that our whole family, Kel, Chris and me... we are hurting for you and wish we could be close to you right now. I've told Kelly I will keep the kids so she and Brent can come to see you. For now, know you are loved. We'll be checking in with you regularly.
